Quail Hollow Ranch Day Camps

Reading and Adventure Camp

Connecting Literacy, Stewardship, and Adventure! Campers will have a chance to hike, read, write and participate in team and individual challenges. Activities will be aimed at bringing the stories and lessons we read about to life in this fun and innovative take on summer camp. Great for the everyday reader, and for those who find sitting inside a difficult space for exploring literature. Age-appropriate books will be provided to each camper, and may include: Magic Tree House, My Side of the Mountain, Hatchet, Nancy Drew, and/or Wolf Brother.

Beginners Backpacking Camp

This overnight backpacking camp will provide families and individuals the chance to learn the basics of backpacking in a safe and nurturing environment. With a focus on group collaboration, we'll provide experience-based knowledge for those looking to spend more time on the trail. Resources on where to rent or buy gear will be provided. We will be tent camping Monday and Tuesday night. Skills covered will include: outdoor cooking, first-aid, water purification, animal encounters, fire building and safety, and gear.

Time Travelers Day Camp

Exploring the history of the Santa Cruz Mountains! Campers will "travel" to different time periods and various locations within Santa Cruz County to learn about the exciting cultures, animals, and communities that roamed this area long before us. Diving into the past will help guide our explorers for their future. Activities centered on living history, exploration, and cultural competence.
